LOCAL DANCER SIGNS WITH LA TALENT AGENCY

PORT COQUITLAM, BC - After auditioning with hundreds of other dancers from the US and world-wide, Port Coquitlam dancer, Chantal Hunt, 23 has been offered an opportunity of a lifetime to be represented by the prestigious Bloc Talent Agency in Los Angeles – a goal that she has been working towards for many years.

Considered to be one of Canada's top young talent, Hunt has been dancing since the age of nine, starting her dance career and winning many awards through competitions with K & S Dance Productions in Port Coquitlam. She has trained at many studios throughout BC in particular Harbour Dance Centre and in pursuit of elevating her skills has trained at the renowned Broadway Dance Centre in New York as well as Millenium Dance, The Edge Performing Arts and Debbie Reynolds Dance Studio in Los Angeles.

Her extraordinary talent surfaced quickly and by the age of 15, Hunt was teaching dance at private dance studios; touring nationally with recording artist Kayle, opening for Aaron Carter, 3 Deep, Vengaboys, Eiffel 65, B-4-4, McMaster & James; and appearing on local television and Much Music. She most recently has been touring across Canada and the United States with recording artist Cory Lee. Her career as a freelance dancer, choreographer, instructor, actor, and model has soared to new heights with this amazing opportunity.

"I am very excited about signing with Bloc Talent Agency," says Hunt. "I have such passion and dedication for dancing and I feel very fortunate that my dream is now coming true. I believe that dance is an art that imprints itself on the soul and I look forward to advancing my skills and continuing to learn from top choreographers and instructors."

Bloc who represents choreographers, dancers and extreme athletes for feature films, episodic and commercial television, live stage and theatre, has recognized Hunt's talent for a reason - Hunt has won auditions and has worked on major films as a special skills/dancer. She has appeared in Scooby Doo 2, Dr. Dolittle 3, Lizzy McGuire and the Goodbye Girl and most recently finished filming with Chris Kattan on Totally Awesome where she was the dance double for the female lead. She has been on TV series, numerous commercials, music videos and teaches at private studios in the Vancouver area.

Hunt will be off to LA in October to meet with Bloc, continue training, taking classes and refining her dance and performance skills.

“I am living every dancers dream and look forward to the opportunities that signing with Bloc will give me,” says Hunt. “To start my career in my home town with the support of instructors, the dance community, family and friends, I am truly grateful – thank you.”
