Local recording artist Kayle nominated for Canadian East Coast Music Award

MAPLE RIDGE, BC – Christmas came early for singer/songwriter Kayle as she was recently nominated for Single of the Year for her top 10 single, “Don’t Hold Me Down” as part of the Canadian East Coast Music Awards (ECMA) taking place in Halifax, Nova Scotia.

Nominated in the company of great Canadian artists such as Rex Goudie, The Trews, Chucky Danger Band and Joel Plaskett, Kayle is excited about heading back home to where she was born and raised.

“I feel very lucky and honoured to be nominated for Single of the Year,” says Kayle. “I am incredibly proud of this song and am looking forward to heading back to the East Coast.”

Kayle has had a busy year with hits on Canadian’s Top 20 Countdown – Canada’s most heard countdown show, various performances and video shoots. Owner of her own independent record label, Knotty Music, Kayle has been in the studio the past few months recording her latest original songs.

The ECMA 2007 Gala Awards Show will be broadcast from the Halifax Metro Centre on Sunday, Feb. 18.
