

For Immediate Release

April 17, 2007

LOCAL SURREY BAND ViV SAVAGE RELEASES FIRST VIDEO, MISSING PIECES

SURREY, BC – Nothing will be missed at this party when ViV Savage hits the stage to launch their first video Missing Pieces. With Phil Maloney on drums, Jared Sauder on guitar, Jesse Jarvis on vocals and Brian Crowe on bass, ViV Savage will bring their high-energy show and official video release to the Backstage Lounge on Granville Island on May 10.

Playing together for the past two years and sticking with their motto of “have a good time, all the time,” ViV Savage brings a smooth rock sound with infectious exuberance and energetic stage presence to every show – this show will be no different.

“We are really excited to be releasing our video for Missing Pieces”, says Phil Maloney, drums. “We have been waiting for the perfect opportunity to do this and having our release party at The Backstage Lounge just couldn’t get any better.”

ViV Savage frequents the local music scene and has had recent shows at the Ocean Beach Club and Grill, The Media Club, Richards on Richards, Plaza Club, The Buffalo Club, the Gecko and more.

ViV Savage will hit the stage for their official release, followed by their energetic show, along with Missing Pieces martinis, appies, door prizes and more. The Fellowship of Stars and Crows and Autoswitch will be opening and closing out the night for ViV Savage on Thur. May 10 at The Backstage Lounge, 1585 Johnston Street, Granville Island. Doors open at 9:00 p.m. and the shows start at 10:00 p.m. Tickets are $10 at the door.

To meet your new best friend, ViV Savage, check out their self-titled CD and more info on their upcoming release party for their video Missing Pieces at www.myspace.com/vivsavage

-30-

For more information, contact:
Amelia Kennedy
CROSSPOINT COMMUNICATIONS
604.302.9707